

The New Mexico Head Start Association presents
Early Childhood Professional Development Institute

November 8-10, 2010

*Harvest of Hope...
Sowing the Seeds of Success*

The New Mexico Head Start Association is excited to present the 2010 Early Childhood Professional Development Institute. This year's theme is "A Harvest Of Hope...Sowing the Seeds of Success." This conference is focused around preparing the complete child for life-long learning and success. The target audience for this Institute is Early Childhood Educators, Practitioners as well as all those who work with and touch the lives of our little learners. Parents are strongly encouraged to attend, as we believe they are a child's first and greatest "educator." The NMHSA looks forward to your participation at this year's Institute. The NMHSA is not able to offer payment for presenters, but we will provide a complementary Full Conference Registration for all trainers!

Please complete the following information and return the completed form by October 8, 2010. Your completed packet may be emailed to NMHSA@midwestnmcap.org or faxed to (505) 865-1506 or send to NMHSA, c/o Rose Mary Sandoval, 549 Don Pasqual, Los Lunas, NM 87031. Questions can be sent to the afore mentioned email address or call (505) 866-0466 ext. 225. Confirmation and additional instructions will be sent out via email.
